
Women Building Environmental Peace in Colombia

Natalia Jiménez Galindo

COLOMBIA

War and violence in biodiversity hotspots

Improve the human security levels

Public policy processes improving skills and legitimacy to manage and prevent conflicts

Biodiversity
Energy conflict
Climate change
impacts of conservation
ecological social
social impacts INFLUENCE LONG-TERM SUCCESS CULTURAL
WOLF
RELATIONSHIPS
MATERIAL
GOVERNANCE
WELLBEING
CITES
focus:
increasing POACHING
need: open discussion of cultural & ideological differences
1 sided debate
A BIG CHALLENGE!
data & FACTS
agriculture
CONSERVATION
science
Language
LAND clearing
nature protection & environmental conflict
PROPOSAL
King Island
identity?
process
NEED to understand HUMAN dimension
HUMAN dimension drives
benefits
legitimacy?
conflict
Question: what is energy CONFLICT? & NEW energy Technologies
local impacts
LARGE GLOBAL benefits
BIG energy INFRASTRUCTURE
local identity
lifestyle & LIVELIHOODS
community
process
mining
social LICENCE to operate
CSIRO data
measure & MODEL social licence
TREAT as OP social DATA
HEAR the message
create SPACES for voice
ATTITUDES
www.drsuepillans.com
wildlife
HUNTING
change
MANAGEMENT
PROTECT & CONSERVE
M.VALUES
see wildlife
multi-level
adaptive role
dynamic
wildlife
social trophy
CULTURAL CORE of HUMAN-WILDLIFE in the US
Mike Manfredo, COLORADO STATE UNI
understanding & SOLVING Environmental conflict
misinformation:
FACTS
myths
"climategate" CONTRACT
"ice isn't melting"
"it's unclear"
"there is NO CONSENSUS"
INCREASING people's critical thinking SKILLS
2 TYPES of conflict
1. Intergroup
believers
deniers
2. Policy
PUBLIC
climate change
ALREADY care about
examples
Health care
Employment
Economics
adapting to climate change
vs
adapting to climate risks & extreme weather
AUSTRALIAN minerals INDUSTRY
FRAMING
messages
FORUM
37 million people in US
hunt & fish
$90B us spend scientific
FACTS are not a solution to SOCIAL conflict
NETWORK OF Environmental Social scientists
28 OCTOBER 2016

- Women participating in environmental decisions